What is employee monitoíing softwaíe?

Employee monitoring software is computer software or a web-service used to monitor employee computer activities automatically. This technology is beneficial if you need to automatically assess or be up-to-date about employee productivity, attendance, computer, and software use